

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the said Burgess and Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to do all acts necessary and proper to carry out the provisions of this Act, whether such powers are specially herein mentioned or not, and to pass any and all ordinances necessary for the carrying out of the provisions of this Act.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the said Burgess and Commissioners are authorized to provide by ordinance for the protection of the said waterworks, pipes, hydrants, fire plugs or other parts thereof, and sewers, and to provide penalties for any violation of such ordinance not inconsistent with the provisions of the existing charter of the said town of Hancock.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That at the town election to be held in said Hancock next succeeding the passage of this Act a vote shall be taken by the qualified voters of said town, whether or not the bond issue herein provided for shall be made, which election shall be held under the provisions of law now governing such elections; and for the purposes of taking said vote at said election there shall be printed on the ballots to be used at said election the words, "For the Bond Issue," and the words "Against the Bond Issue," and if the majority of the qualified voters voting at such election shall vote in favor of said bond issue, then the said Burgess and Commissioners shall issue said bonds and this Act shall be operative and in full force and effect; but if the majority of such qualified voters of said town shall vote against the issue of said bonds, then this Act shall be null and void. The judges of election at said election shall at the close of the polls on said election day count the votes cast and make a certificate of the same and return such certificate, together with the ballots cast, to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Washington County, and the said clerk shall duly file said certificate and ballots and preserve the same.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 24, 1910.
